

GOVERNANCE. PEOPLE. PROCESSES. TECHNOLOGIES.

PROJECT MANAGER

DirectViz Solutions, LLC, a high-level strategic consulting services firm that meets mission needs for commercial and government clients, is seeking a Project Manager. This position will be located at Charleston, SC. An active Secret clearance required.

Requirements:

Ten years of engineering experience related to communication/computer/radar or similar systems.

Five years demonstrated ability to supervise, plan and lead technical/engineering teams in multiple, complex task assignments involving diverse engineering disciplines and includes written and oral communications commensurate with management role.

Experience may be concurrent. Project Management Professional Certification (PMP) (or equivalent) – may be substituted for one (1) year of experience

Five years demonstrated ability to supervise, plan and lead technical/engineering teams in multiple, complex task assignments involving diverse engineering disciplines and includes written and oral communications commensurate with management role.

Secret Clearance Required

Qualifications:

Education: Bachelor of Sciences degree in engineering, physics, Physical Sciences, Mathematics, computer science, information security or other technically oriented curricula.

Ten years of engineering experience related to communication/computer/radar or similar systems. In lieu of a degree: Fourteen (14) years of engineering experience related to communication/computer/radar or similar systems.