

GOVERNANCE. PEOPLE. PROCESSES. TECHNOLOGIES.

SUBJECT MATTER EXPERT

DirectViz Solutions, LLC, a high-level strategic consulting services firm that meets mission needs for commercial and government clients, is seeking a Subject Matter Expert. This position will be located at Charleston, SC. An active Secret clearance required.

Responsibilities:

- Documented Cybersecurity background in system design, integration and development
- System requirements analysis
- System Test and Evaluation, planning execution and management
- Hardware and software ECP Evaluation
- Cybersecurity concepts and requirements development
- Software requirements analysis, design, integration, development, application and testing.
- Electronics to include related concepts and requirements for Sensor Systems, Antenna systems, Communications configuration, Navigational, Radar, to accomplish stated Communications/SIGINT objectives.
- ILS planning and management
- Technical development product milestone scheduling

Eighteen (18) years of hands-on experience with Information Technology, to include three of the following areas:

Program Management and Strategic Planning, Systems Requirements, HIPAA requirements, Medical Systems, DoD Medical, Operational Requirements, Enterprise Strategic Planning, Unix/Linux system software, Test & Evaluation, and Training.

Secret Clearance Required

Qualifications:

Recognized expert who has demonstrated industry and public service leadership in one or more of: medical systems; advanced system architecture; hardware technologies; digital/analog communications technologies; applied physics; human factors engineering; computer simulation; electronic sensor technologies; and ERP.

Required Skills:

- Ability to plan and organize work and interact with technical and non-technical personnel translating user requirements into responsive applications.
- Demonstrated detailed knowledge of IA concepts and requirements.
- Demonstrated comprehensive knowledge DOD military specifications and standards.
- System design integration planning for multiple large-scale installations.