

GOVERNANCE. PEOPLE. PROCESSES. TECHNOLOGIES.

Data Analyst

DirectViz Solutions, LLC, a high-level strategic consulting services firm that meets mission needs for Data Analyst Business Analyst. This position, located in “Pensacola, FL”.

Responsibilities:

Participate in a team environment, performing data analysis services and deliverables. Assist in development and implementation of data strategies that optimize data quality, improve standardization, and increase value derived from enterprise data sources. Follow data governance standards, process rules, and other data management policies for enterprise systems; convert business rules into technical rules for data quality analysis and management. Use data collection systems, processes, tools and templates that enable efficient importing, cleaning, transforming, validating or modeling of data for the purpose of making conclusions for decision making purposes. Utilize computerized data monitoring and editing routines; develop relational databases; manage data cleansing, de-duplication and harmonization of data across systems; support data quality audits and build analyses, trending and forecasting reports. Identify, analyze, and interpret trends or patterns in complex data sets using statistical tools like SAS, SPSS, Microsoft Excel, and other tool. Summarize statistical results presenting data in charts, graphs, tables; publish results via metrics dashboards and executive reports. Document specifications for reports, dashboards, and other outputs; provide technical support for reports, dashboards, and tools maintaining a library of model reports, templates, and other knowledge assets. Possess high-level oral and written communications skills; effectively communicate with all levels of client management, contractor managers and client agency representatives; adept in generating and conducting briefings, presentations.

Five (5) recent years of demonstrated experience in working with data quality, metadata management, master data management (MDM) or data governance initiatives; experience in data mining techniques and procedures, and fully independent data analytics extracting/querying Oracle databases, building SQL pivots, developing/ manipulating data cubes, conducting data analysis using various COTS and Business Intelligence software such as Cognos Business Intelligence Software, Oracle PLSQL, and SQL Plus/SQL Worksheet. Position requires IA Workforce (IAWF) certification IAW DOD 8570.01-M and SECNAV M-5239.2.

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Must be U.S. Citizen
- SECRET clearance
- DOD 8570.01-M and SECNAV M-5239.2 Certifications
- The minimum education requirements are a Bachelor's level degree in computer science, business, engineering or related discipline.
- Five (5) years of intensive and current, industry accepted experience conducting data analysis and identifying data related business requirements.