

GOVERNANCE. PEOPLE. PROCESSES. TECHNOLOGIES.

Mainframe Support Administrator

DirectViz Solutions, LLC, a high-level strategic consulting services firm that meets mission needs for commercial and government clients, is seeking a Mainframe Support Administrator. This position will be located in Seaside, Ca and requires a Top Secret or interim TS clearance.

Responsibilities:

- Assist with installing, testing and analyzing new releases, patches, bug fixes, and upgraded versions of COTS software products in an IBM z/OS environment
- Analyze and execute product changes in test and production environments
- Analyze performance impacts of new software releases, including resource monitoring; analyze and ensure system security in maintained in new releases of patches and COTS software releases
- Provide support during problem analysis and resolution if issues are found with new software releases prior to release to production. New release/version analysis will be performed outside of the production environment on a stand-alone z/OS test system before deployment to production environments.
- Provide application support, as needed, to ensure product maintenance windows are executed as planned and is up-to-date; performing system clean up and system migrations ensuring completion in a timely manner; and conducting impact analysis, technical reviews and application program reviews.

Qualifications:

Top Secret Clearance

- Security + CE

Required Skills:

- TSO
- ISPF
- JCL
- RACF
- SAS
- CA-7
- Connect Direct
- Code 1
- Cyberfusion